

Department of Languages & Literature, University of Utah
Application for the Warren D. Fishburn, Jr.
Scholarship for Modern Languages

Terms: One year full (12 credit hours) resident tuition and fees. Recipient must maintain the language major and hold no other scholarships.

Eligibility: Open to all full-time resident undergraduate and graduate students who have attended the University of Utah for at least one year and have declared a major in one of the following modern foreign languages: French, German, Russian, and Spanish.

Deadline: Due on or before February 24th

How to Apply:

1. Return in this application and all pertinent materials to the department:

Department of Languages & Literature
University of Utah
255 S. Central Campus Dr., Rm. 1400
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

2. Submit academic transcripts from all colleges attended.

3. Three letters of recommendation, preferably submitted directly by the writers to the department with the scholarship recommendation form attached. Two of these letters must be written by faculty in the Department of Languages & Literature. If you are also applying for a University of Utah Departmental Scholarship, you may use the same set of letters for both applications.

Indicate your status:

Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior Graduate

Please type or print:

Mr./Ms. _____ Unid: _____

Address: _____

Tel.: _____ E-mail: _____

Major: _____ Cumulative GPA: _____

I certify that the information on this form is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that the transcript(s) of credits and grades that I am providing with this application will be reviewed by scholarship committee members.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Letters of recommendation will be coming from:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

I am also using the same set of letters for a University of Utah Departmental Scholarship application.

Yes No

Please type your responses to the following questions on a separate sheet; 150 words maximum for each response.

1. What is your major in the department of Languages and Literature and what motivates you toward this major?
2. What is your hometown and what experiences outside of the classroom, if any, do you have in the language you are studying (travel, study abroad, spoken at home, community or religious service, etc.)?
3. When do you expect to graduate and what are your academic/career goals following graduation?
4. List pertinent scholarly accomplishments (academic awards, AP placement, honors courses, special programs, performances, exhibitions, etc.).
5. List leadership positions, extracurricular, and community activities.
6. Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?

The University of Utah is fully committed to the policies of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity and vigorously pursues affirmative action in all programs, activities, and employment with regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age and status as a person with a disability. Religion, sexual orientation and status as disabled veteran or veteran of the Vietnam era also are protected under nondiscrimination and equal opportunity employment policies. Evidence of practices not consistent with these policies should be reported to the University of Utah Office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action at (801) 581-8365. The University of Utah Center for Disabled Student Services at (801) 581-5020 (voice or TDD) provides resources and support services for students with disabilities.