

Malinche and Native Women

SPAN 4900-001 & CLCS 3900-001

3 credits

IVC - TuTh / 02:00PM-03:20PM

lectures & discussions in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Who is Malinche? Myth, traitor, Translator, Paz's Mother of Mexican nationhood, role model, Indigenous woman enslaved by the Spaniards during the colonization, etc? What does she represent and how is she portrayed? From Malinche to contemporary representations of Indigenous women's subjectivity, we will critically read various texts to unravel this imagery that has marked indigenous women from Latin America.
